ORDINANCE 2024-7

Amending Chapter 22 of the South Brunswick Township Code Regarding Requirement of Residential Resale Certificate of Occupancy

WHEREAS, the Township of South Brunswick maintains Chapter 22, Buildings and Building Regulations, of the Township Code; and

WHEREAS, Residential Resale Certificates of Occupancy are required prior to sale or transfer of any property that contains a building used for human occupancy; and

WHEREAS, due to State regulation changes, it is in the best interest of the Township of South Brunswick to amend the Code at this time;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ORDAINED by the Township Council of the Township of South Brunswick, County of Middlesex, State of New Jersey, that:

I. Chapter 22, Buildings and Building Regulations, of the Township Code of the Township of South Brunswick shall be and is hereby amended and supplemented, with the additions in underline and deletions in strikethrough:

Secs. 22-405 - 22-424. Reserved.

ARTICLE XI. - Residential Resale Certificate of ~~Continued~~ Occupancy

Sec. 22-425. Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy (~~CCO~~-RRCO) required.

- (1) A Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy (RRCO) is the document issued by the Township of South Brunswick upon the determination that a dwelling is fit for human habitation in accordance with the provisions of the South Brunswick Housing Code, ordinances of the Township of South Brunswick, and the rules, regulations and laws of the State of New Jersey.
- (2) No owner, agent or broker shall sell, transfer or grant with right of occupancy, whether or not for consideration, any residential dwelling, unit or premises on which a building is located and used for human occupancy, unless a Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy is first obtained from the Housing Officer by use of the appropriate application and fees provided herein. The owner shall afford the Housing Officer the opportunity to inspect the structure and premises and shall consent to inspection.
- (3) The owner of the residential dwelling unit is hereby charged with the responsibility for making written application in accordance with this section for a Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy. The buyer of such dwelling unit may waive the seller's responsibility and assume the same; provided, however, that such waiver shall be in writing, which said waiver shall further state that the buyer is fully aware that he, she or it is assuming responsibility for obtaining a Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy pursuant to this section, and provided further that such written waiver shall be filed with the Housing Officer.

- (4) The Housing Officer shall issue a Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy, provided that there are no violations of law or orders of the Construction Official, in consultation with the Zoning Officer, and it is established after site inspection and investigation of available municipal records that the alleged use of the building or structure has lawfully existed. The certificate shall be evidence only that a general inspection of the visible parts of the building or structure has been made and that no violations of N.J.A.C. 5:23-2.14, as amended (Construction Permits When Required), and N.J.A.C. 5:23-2.18, as amended (Inspections), have been determined to exist, no conditions of violation of N.J.A.C. 5:23-2.32, as amended (Unsafe Structures) N.J.A.C. 5:28 - 1.1 - 1.13 (Standards of Habitability), or unsafe conditions have been observed and no violations of the Code of the Township of South Brunswick have been found to exist.
- (5) If the Housing Officer, as the result of a permit records search and a general inspection of visible parts of the structure, finds any violation as set forth in Subsection B(4), he shall notify the owner of the violation, in writing, by mail, email or by delivering the notice to the owner or his agent. The notice shall identify the premises and specify the violations and any remedial action, along with compliance date. The notice will require the owner to satisfy the violations, file any necessary permits as required, and state that failure to correct the violations within the time specified shall result in fines as prescribed in the Uniform Construction Code or New Jersey State Housing Code.
- (6) A Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy shall be effective for a period of 120 days. One administrative extension of not more than 30 days may be granted by the Housing Officer. If a dwelling fails to sell, transfer or grant with right of occupancy within this period, and the dwelling remains for sale, the owner shall make written application and obtain a new Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy.
- (7) If the application for a certificate states that the dwelling unit is not intended for residential occupancy or human habitation, the Housing Officer may waive the requirement for a Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy.

Sec. 22-426. Fees

Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy. The fee for a Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy (CCO) for detached residential dwellings (including one-, two-, three-, and four-family dwellings) shall be $150. The fee for a Residential Resale certificate of ~~continued~~ occupancy for attached multifamily dwellings, commonly referred to as "townhomes" or "condominiums," shall be $125.

Sec. 22-427. Exemptions

A sale, transfer or grant with right of occupancy, whether or not for consideration, of a residential dwelling, unit or premises under the following circumstances shall be exempt from the requirements of this Article:

- 1) between married persons;
- 2) between former married persons ordered as a result of a judicial decree of divorce, dissolution of marriage or judicial separation, but not including sales to third parties;
- 3) between family members as a result of inheritance;
- 4) through an executor's deed to a class A beneficiary; or
- 5) by court order.

Sec. 22-428. Compliance Required.

No person shall occupy as owner/occupant or rent for occupancy any dwelling or dwelling unit for the purpose of living therein which does not conform to the provisions of the New Jersey State Housing Code (1980 revision) established hereby as the standard to be used in determining whether a dwelling is safe, sanitary and fit for human habitation.

Sec. 22-429. Violations and Penalties.

Any person who shall violate any provisions of this article shall, upon conviction, be punished as provided in Chapter 1, Section 1-13(a).

II. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this ordinance or any other codes or ordinances incorporated herein shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder hereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which said judgment shall have been rendered.

III. This ordinance shall become effective twenty (20) days after its final passage.

The above ordinance was introduced and passed on first reading at a regular meeting of the Township Council of the Township of South Brunswick held on March 20, 2024, and will be considered on second and final reading and final passage at a regular meeting of the Township Council of the Township of South Brunswick to be held at the Municipal Building, Monmouth Junction, New Jersey, at 6:00 p.m. on April 17, 2024, at which time and place any person having an interest therein will be given an opportunity to be heard.
